

Proclamation

Presented

In Recognition of the 7th Annual Aging in Place Day

WHEREAS, the 7th Annual Aging in Place Day workshop, in partnership with the KHON2 News Elderhood Project and Generations Magazine, continues the mission to provide information resources to address the issues of "Aging in Place"; and

WHEREAS, the 7th Annual Aging in Place Day acknowledges the increase in our aging population and works to assure that persons all across the State of Hawai'i are able to live a quality of life with dignity and security; and

WHEREAS, the 7th Annual Aging in Place Day recognizes that healthy aging involves an integrated and holistic approach that includes medical, psychological, legal, financial, and social elements; and

WHEREAS, the 7th Annual Aging in Place Day highlights the need for training increasing numbers of seniors and family caregivers in aspects of geriatrics and aging; and

WHEREAS, the 7th Annual Aging in Place Day workshop brings together key stakeholders to increase public awareness and build capacity for accommodating family members with dementia and caregiving; and

WHEREAS, the 7th Annual Aging in Place Day organizers hope that together we can improve planning, policies, and aging programs to promote a healthy society for all ages;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim August 9, 2013, as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to join us in recognizing the 7th Annual Aging in Place Day and its vision and dedication to informing our residents of the importance of planning and improving our retirement years.

"7TH ANNUAL AGING IN PLACE DAY"

DONE at the State Capitol, in Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this sixth day of August 2013.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
