

Proclamation

Presented to

Darrel Galera

WHEREAS, the State of Hawai'i takes great pride in honoring individuals in the community who serve with great dedication, energy and enthusiasm in the field of education; and

WHEREAS, Darrel Galera began his career in public education in 1981 as a social studies teacher at Moanalua High School; and

WHEREAS, Darrel Galera, throughout his career, held various administrative positions in the Department of Education, including vice principal at Washington Middle, Radford High and Moanalua High Schools and principal at King Intermediate and Aiea Elementary Schools; in 2000, he was appointed principal of Moanalua High School; and

WHEREAS, Darrel Galera dedicated 32 years of his professional life to educating children and served as a phenomenal force at Moanalua High School, where he piloted many innovative programs that are now standard throughout the state; and

WHEREAS, Darrel Galera, former principal of Moanalua High School, is deserving of recognition for his numerous contributions to the community and for the high standard of academic excellence he demanded from the Moanalua High student body; and

WHEREAS, Darrel Galera is continuing his educational career, currently serving as an educational specialist in the Professional Development and Educational Research Institute's Principals Academy;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor for the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim March 3, 2013, as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to join us in congratulating and commending Darrel Galera for his commitment, devotion and leadership in facilitating success in the development of Hawai'i's youth.

"DARREL GALERA DAY"

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this twenty-seventh day of February, 2013.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i