

Proclamation

Presented

In Recognition of Halekulani

WHEREAS, Halekulani traces its roots back over 100 years, when Hawaiian fishermen are said to have named the hotel's beachfront area location halekulani, or "House Befitting Heaven"; and

WHEREAS, Halekulani will celebrate the 30th anniversary of its legacy since re-opening in 1984 following an extensive property-wide renovation by its owners, Mitsui Fudosan Co., Ltd., a prominent real estate company in Japan; and

WHEREAS, Halekulani remains an acclaimed independent luxury hotel, recognized among the world's best by Fodor's, Leading Hotels of the World, Condé Nast Traveler, and other trusted and prestigious organizations, with an international reputation for award-winning service excellence; and

WHEREAS, Halekulani has embraced its prominent role over the past 30 years as Halekulani's community involvement has grown, creating unique guest experiences through major sponsorship of culture and arts institutions in Honolulu – including the Hawai'i Symphony Orchestra, Honolulu Museum of Art, Bishop Museum, and Hawai'i International Film Festival – while its dedicated support of education and the humanities has enhanced its status as a responsible corporate citizen in Hawai'i;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor for the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim May 22, 2014, as in Hawai'i, and ask all citizens of the Aloha State to join us in congratulating Halekulani on its landmark 30th anniversary as it continues its efforts to offer exceptional guest experiences and contribute toward Hawai'i's status as one of the world's premiere leisure and business destination.

"HALEKULANI DAY"

DONE at the State Capitol, in Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this twentieth day of May 2014.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
