

Proclamation
Presented
In Recognition of Lani Moo

WHEREAS, Lani Moo is undoubtedly Hawai'i's most famous and beloved cow, and remembered fondly by generations of island keiki; and

WHEREAS, Lani Moo remains Meadow Gold's ambassador of health, nutrition and education, focused on making good health habits fun; and

WHEREAS, Lani Moo, the mascot, makes numerous public appearances throughout the community to the delight of children and adults; and

WHEREAS, Lani Moo, the actual cow, happily resides at the Honolulu Zoo, greeting visiting children and parents at the Keiki Zoo; and

WHEREAS, Friday, February 22, 2013, commemorates the Keiki Zoo's dedication of the interactive educational exhibit for learning about cows, milk and health;

NOW THEREFORE, I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor for the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim February 22, 2013, as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to join us in recognizing the role of Lani Moo in educating the people of Hawai'i about good health and nutrition.

"LANI MOO DAY"

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this twentieth day of February, 2013.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
