

Proclamation
Presented
In Recognition of Walgreens Grand Opening in Ewa Beach

WHEREAS, Walgreens was established in 1901 by Charles R. Walgreen Sr. and has grown into one of American's largest pharmacy chains with more than 8,000 locations nationwide; and

WHEREAS, Walgreens has been serving the people of Hawai'i since 2007 and continues to be committed to excellence in service, quality and affordability; and

WHEREAS, Walgreens has held more than 50 events in the past year to support well over 50 different organizations since its entry into the State of Hawai'i; and

WHEREAS, Walgreens has raised nearly $100,000 for local non-profit organizations; the funds remain in the State to benefit local residents; and

WHEREAS, Walgreens is committed to this effort and takes great pride in giving back to the State of Hawai'i, its people and their health and wellness; and

WHEREAS, Walgreens beneficiaries include but are not limited to The American Cancer Society, The American Heart Association, The Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, and the Susan G. Komen Foundation; and

WHEREAS, Walgreens is proud to introduce its newest store serving the community of Ewa Beach;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim July 14, 2013, as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to join us in recognizing Walgreen's commitment to "giving back" and the importance of providing convenient access to pharmacies in all our communities.

"WALGREENS DAY"

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this twelfth day of June 2013.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
